Langley inducted into Law Fraternity

Durham, NC - DeWarren K. Langley was inducted into the Raymond Watkins Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity International on Friday, October 24, 2008 at North Carolina Central University School of Law.

Founded in 1902, the purpose of this Fraternity is to form a strong bond uniting students and teachers of the law with members of the Bench and Bar in a fraternal fellowship designed to advance the ideals of liberty and equal justice under law; to stimulate excellence in scholarship; to inspire the virtues of compassion and courage; to foster integrity and professional competence; to promote the welfare of its members; and to encourage their moral, intellectual, and cultural advancement; so that each member may enjoy a lifetime of honorable professional and public service.

Langley says, "Phi Alpha Delta coincides with my foundational personal values of dedication to serving others, achieving academic excellence and providing meaningful service to my fellow law students and community at large."

Langley is a first year law student at North Carolina Central University School of Law and plans to earn a Certificate in Dispute Resolution from the Dispute Resolution Institute at NCCU School of Law. He is also a member of the Black Law Student Association, and the Intellectual Property Society at NCCU School of Law; IL Thurgood Marshall Associate with the Council on Legal Education Opportunity and a member of the NC Bar Association - Law Student Division.
